Student Engagement and Wellbeing Policy

POLICY

1. School profile

Mildura Primary School (MPS) is one of four large primary schools in the Mildura Rural City Council local government area. It has a long history of service to the community. The school has benefited from all students coming together on one campus (2012) with the completion of major BER infrastructure projects which provided 6 new classrooms, new library facilities, a half sized Gymnasium, Art, Music, Physical Education and Canteen facilities. The school has access to adjacent substantial local government facilities and clearly takes great pride in how it presents to the community.

The school currently has an enrolment of about 350+ students. Class sizes are between 18 – 25 students. MPS has a Student Family Occupation (SFO) index of 0.87 and a Student Family Occupation Education (SFOE) index of 0.75 confirming a profile of family poverty and disadvantage which is compounded over generations. A high proportion (up to 30%) of children entering the school has significant learning delays. These children are of school age without the necessary pre-cursors for successful learning. There is significant student transience. The significant mobility provides additional challenges and requires close monitoring and early assessment of student needs.

The multi-cultural student population comprises of a third Koorie students, 90 Islander students and others from a range of cultural backgrounds including Turkish, Sudanese and Afghani. There are 35 students funded under the Program for Disabilities They are supported by additional staff employed for this purpose.

The low SES promotes a perception from some sections in the broader community of the school being a poor performer in some key areas compared to others. The improvements in student learning and in the overall school climate evident over the last few years challenge these perceptions. Nevertheless, they persist in some quarters.

MPS leadership comprises the Principal, 1 Assistant Principals, 3 Leading Teachers, and a Learning Specialist in charge of AIP priorities. There are 18 classroom teachers; Specialists in Art, Physical Education, Library/Health and Barkindji; two literacy support teachers; and additional staff to support coaching and students learning, including 20 Educational Support staff.

The MPS Koorie and Islander workforce work closely with the community building strong relationships between the families and student access to quality education.

A Connected Beginnings Site is located at MPS. The school's success at working closely with all the elements of its community, and the broader community, is an outcome of priority attention, planning and action.

The aim of the Connected Beginnings program is to support the integration of early childhood, maternal and child health, and family support services with schools in a number of disadvantaged Indigenous communities so that children are well prepared for school. Over time, this will contribute to reducing the disparity in school readiness and educational outcomes between Indigenous and non-indigenous children.

The project will bring together many of the services that stand alone in the Mildura area and work with members of the community to give them directions and access to these services. The common outcome being to provide families and children aged 0 to 5 years of age with the help needed to have school ready children by the age of 5 years. Often children and their families are in need of help with occupational therapy, regular doctor check-ups, and speech support. The project will also provide access to preschools and ensure young children are attending regularly to benefit from the early years programs provided.

Through a culture of 'High Expectations Relationships' for all, Mildura Primary works to have a calm and focused environment where children are happy and highly engaged in their learning.

2. School values, philosophy and vision

"Kids come first at Mildura Primary School"

This belief in high quality relationships is pursued through the day to day interactions with teachers, students, parents, and community. MPS has a firm commitment to inclusion, active participation and social justice, and is proud of its multicultural context.

The Student Wellbeing team plays a significant role in developing and implementing strategies help identify students in need of support and enhance student wellbeing. Mildura Primary School will utilise the following information and tools to identify students in need of extra emotional, social or educational support:

- attendance, detention and suspension data
- engagement with families
- self-referrals or referrals from peers

5. Student rights and responsibilities

All members of our school community have a right to experience a safe and supportive school environment. We expect that all students, staff, parents and carers treat each other with respect and dignity. Our school's Statement of Values highlights the rights and responsibilities of members of our community.

Students have the right to:

- participate fully in their education
- feel safe, secure and happy at school
- learn in an environment free from bullying, harassment, violence, discrimination or intimidation
- express their ideas, feelings and concerns.

Students have the responsibility to:

- participate fully in their educational program

Mildura Primary School Staff are committed to follow DET guidance on Restraint and Seclusion.

Student Engagement and Wellbeing Policy

6. Student behavioural expectations

Our School Wide Positive Behaviours Support Matrix, that was developed by staff, Studnets and the community outlines behaviour expectations for all areas of the school. Formal lessons are taught to help develop an understanding of what this looks and sounds like.

Behaviour of Students

All staff must be extremely vigilant in ensuring that the highest standards of both behaviour and manners of children are adhered to at all times. Staff should be aware that bullying can take many forms and will not be tolerated. Verbal bullying can be as damaging as physical, so please be proactive and always respond when children report being harassed. Never ignore a child's complaint, always look into the issue. (See Management of bullying document)

Supporting Students to develop Positive Behaviour

Never discipline a whole class for the misbehaviour of a few. Children are relatively powerless but in the place of power they have a very refined sense of personal fairness and justice. You have probably heard children say "That's not fair, you let her/him do it so why can't I?" etc. If you are unfair to children you will lose their respect and you will never gain their confidence. The quality of your relationship with the children depends on your attitude. Think of all the teachers you have had yourself and you will find the ones you learned from and the ones you remember with fondness were the ones you respected.

- Children must be in sight and supervised at all times. They are not to be sent out of the classroom, out of sight of the teacher, for misbehaving. If you are taking someone's class while they are having APT you must deal with discipline breeches yourself and not send the children back to their class teacher. Use of Behaviour Buddy Classrooms is expected.
- You may make arrangements for another teacher to support you by taking a child who has temporarily exhausted your patience. (behaviour buddy class system)
- If you are to gain children's respect for your authority, always deal with issues related to behaviour.
- Seek assistance and advice from your Leading Teacher.
- Seek assistance and advice from the Principal or Assistant Principal.
- Don't punish children by having them do work that in other circumstances you would want them to enjoy, e.g. spelling or Maths.

Bullying:

Bullying is not to be tolerated. Teachers must immediately deal with all instances of verbal, emotional, and physical bullying and report instances to either the Principal or Assistant Principals. Make sure instances are logged on Compass for tracking purposes.

Please talk with your children about sensible school rules and define what bullying is and is not. Remember that there are quite a few new children in our school who won't know what is expected of them.

Student Engagement and Wellbeing Policy

Consequences

Before putting consequences into place we need to use the steps of Prompt, Redirect, Reteach, Alteration of Activity, Choice and Conferencing. These are important steps in teaching students new behaviors because of the element of personal choice and responsibility to the student.

When a consequence is then applied for unacceptable behavior, it has been done in a fair way.

The student cannot lay blame or responsibility somewhere else for their own actions.

Using the steps of: Prompt, Redirect, Reteach, Alteration of Activity, Choice and Conferencing in a consistent manner will help make the student feel more secure and also teach him/her that their actions will be followed by the same steps each time. When these steps are used consistently, we usually find that after a period of time positive behaviours are encouraged. However, there will be occasions when you will need to follow through, particularly in the beginning. Most children will want to 'test the system'. Where possible it is preferable to apply consequences that are logically linked to the misbehavior e.g.:

- Rough games - means play privileges are removed.
- Throwing things around - means time-out first to calm down then picking up the things thrown
- Being nasty to people - means an apology.
- Not sharing resources - means that student may have to go without.
- Wasting time - means paying it back in their own time.
